UNIT 03. What's Going On? (Lesson1)

- Asking What Is Happening Now
- Describing What Is Happening
- Review

1. Asking What Is Happening Now:

(1) Present progressive

Present progressive questions

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| What | is | she taking? |
| Where | | he going? |
| Who | | she bringing? |
| Why | are | they coming ? |
| When | | you leaving? |
| How | | we getting there? |

(2) Choosing the 'wh' word

Q: What are you eating?
A: I'm eating a sandwich.

Q: Who is he helping?
A: He's helping a customer.

Q: Where are you going?
A: We're going to the supermarket.

(3) Prepositions

Q: Who is she talking to?
A: She's talking to her mum.

Q: What are they waiting for?
A: They're waiting for their order.

(4) Present progressive / Future

Q: Where are we meeting?
A: I'm meeting you at the train station.

2. Describing What Is Happening:

(1) Present progressive

Q: What is he doing now?
A: He is giving a speech.

Q: What are they doing now?
A: He is sleeping on his desk. She is eating apples.
The baby is painting his face.

Q: What are they doing now?
A: They are studying. They are reading books.

3. Discussion Questions

1. What are you doing right now?
A: Right now, I'm watching a video, drinking some coffee and listening to some music in the background.

2.: What are you doing these days?/ What are you up to these days?
A: These days, I'm learning swing dancing, the cello and of course working on my English lessons.

3. What TV shows are you watching?

A: These days, I'm watching the sitcoms "How I Met Your Mother" and "Modern Family." I like to watch this show with Korean subtitles as another way to learn Korean.

5. Where are you working nowadays?

A: These days, I'm working at Pagoda in Gangnam. How about you? Where are you working?