Part 1 - Shopping

- What would you recommend that tourists buy from your country? [Why?]

- ‘Selca bong’, cheap and easier to take photos, good for tourists

Part 1 - Shopping

- What would you recommend that tourists buy from your country? [Why?]

→ I would say 'Selca-bong'. I'm not sure if you've heard of it. It's a long stick which fixes your smart phone so that you can take a photo of yourself without anyone else's help. It's very popular in Korea and it's really cheap as well. Only about 10 dollars? Since they are tourists, it'll be even more useful for them.

Part 2 - Popular teacher

She is a very attractive woman. Physically, she's quite small and slim and good looking with her short hair. In terms of her personality, she's very enthusiastic and passionate. You can tell she truly loves her work even though she's always engaged in something. At the same time, she's very considerate and understanding. So, she makes others feel comfortable and cared. Through this teacher, I've learnt various things about my body. She taught me how to stand and walk properly to have right posture and how to stretch and relax relieving backpain. All of these were very new and useful to me.

Part 2 - Popular teacher

Talking about why she's loved by students, I think it's because she's a well experienced teacher. She quickly catches each student's need and applies different practice for each student. Also, she's very encouraging and motivating. You know, you can easily get bored or frustrated by the repeated exercise. But, she always tries to remind students of how much they've achieved and how well they are following with a lot of praise and compliments so that students can feel proud of themselves not giving up. I think these are the reasons why she's popular and why I like her. I'd like to take her class as long as possible.
