Unit 12

Questions 1-3 refer to the following traffic report.

This is David Mason reporting on this windy, rainy morning. Traffic this morning could be a nightmare for those who need to travel on the Westside Expressway. Long stretches of the expressway are closed due to flooding from the heavy rain. The expressway is closed from exit 13 to exit 18. Authorities don't anticipate the flooding to let up until at least late this afternoon. If you are travelling from uptown to the city, the local streets will be your best and quickest route today. Hopefully, the expressway will be completely open again by rush hour. For your latest in all traffic reports, keep your radio tuned to BKS.

Unit 12

Questions 7-9 refer to the following news report.

In local news, the Cultural Preservation Society made a surprising announcement today. According to the society's spokesperson Tiffany Depp, they have made plans to relocate the Northern Native Museum to the suburbs of the city. The main reason for the move is that there just isn't enough space in the current building to include any more new exhibits. She said the next step in the plan will be start looking for an exact site in the suburbs. They hope to commence with construction by June and have it completed by next spring.
