여기까지 말하고 나면 자신의 경험을 섞어 답변을 지어내는 것이 수월해진다

Full Response 1

선택하지 않은 쪽 공격하기

There are two possible solutions.

The first solution is to talk to the student.

And the second solution is to stay quiet and let him do all the talking.

In my opinion, the second solution is better.

This is because in that way, she won't have to be stressed out.

Also, it is not plausible to talk to the student because he won't listen to her.

개인적 경험 말하기 + Magical Sentence

There are two possible solutions.

The first solution is to talk to the professor.

And the second solution is to postpone the interview.

In my opinion, the first solution is better.

This is because the professor would understand if she tells him about her situation.

Actually, when I was in college, I was in a similar situation.

What happened was, I just talked to my professor and solved the problem, which was very easy.

Full Response 3

상식적 단점 말하기

There are two possible solutions.

The first solution is to call the other members to change the date of the meeting.

And the second solution is to e-mail the group and send them everything he did so far.

In my opinion, the second solution is better.

This is because it is not plausible to call the other members to change the date of the meeting. If he does, they won't have enough time to finish the project.

In my opinion, This is because... * also, it is x a good idea to /x plausible to ... * If I were her, I would definitely choose the...

So, for these reasons...

샘플답변 1

The man's problem is that he is a director and has a concert but Jason cannot perform because of an emergency. So, he doesn't know what to do. There are two possible solutions. The first solution is to reschedule the concert for next week. The second solution is to sing Jason's part himself. In my opinion, the second solution is better. This is because he is a great singer and already knows all the songs. So, he will be able to cover for Jason at ease. Also, it's not a good idea to reschedule the concert because next week is an exam week. If I were him, I would definitely sing Jason's part myself. So, for these reasons, I think the 2nd solution is better.

샘플답변 2

The man's problem is that he is a director and has a concert but one of his singing group members cannot perform because of an emergency. So, he doesn't know what to do. There are two possible solutions. The first solution is to reschedule the concert for next week. The second solution is to sing Jason's part himself. In my opinion, the second solution is better. This is because it's not plausible to reschedule the concert since next week is an exam week. Plus, when I was in college, I was in a similar situation. I mean... I was a director of an acting group and one of the members couldn't perform. So, I took his part myself and it actually worked, which was great! So, these are why I would recommend the second solution for the man.

Listening Script

연습 1

W: Uh! I can never get to speak in my Communications class because there is one student who always answers every question. I never have the chance to say anything!

M: Hmm... Maybe you should try talking to that student about the situation. Maybe if you do that, he'll begin to speak less in class.

W: Well, I've thought about that, but I'm not sure if he'll listen to me...

M: Well, then... Does it really matter if you speak in class? Why don't you just stay quiet and let him do all the talking? You don't have to get so stressed about this.

W: You know I would... I mean, I don't even like talking in class anyway. But it's just that... participation is such a big part of our final grade. And if I don't talk enough in class, I will get a bad grade.

연습 2

W: I have to go on a required field trip for Biology this Friday. It is part of our final grade, but the thing is... I also have a job interview on that day. What should I do?

M: Have you tried talking to the professor about your situation? Tell him you have an emergency. I'm sure he'll understand. Ask him if you can go on the field trip at another time.

W: Uh... I'm not too sure if that's possible. My professor is really strict about these things. He won't let anyone miss that trip.

M: If that's the case, then... can't you just postpone the day of your interview? I mean, pushing it to another day or two shouldn't matter... and besides, the trip is more important since you need a good grade for class...

W: I could do that, but I really want this job. I think it would look bad to my interviewer if I ask to change the date of the interview.

연습 3

M: My group was supposed to meet up tomorrow to finish our Marketing project, but I just realized that my mother's birthday is tomorrow, so I can't go to the meeting. I know everyone is going to be so mad at me if I don't show up.

W: Why don't you call the other members and try to change the date of the meeting? Ask them to move it to Saturday or something. I'm sure they'll understand since it's your mom's birthday...

M: But if we do that, there won't be enough time to finish the project! It's due next week!

W: Hmmm... Then maybe you should email the group and send them everything you did so far. That way, you don't have to worry about being at the meeting.

M: But I don't think it will be fair to the other members if I do that.

Practice

M: Linda, can I talk to you for a minute?

W: Yeah, of course, Allen. What's wrong?

M: Well... there's something that's making me worried a little. You know I am the director of our Singing Group in school, right?

W: Yeah. I heard you will have a show this weekend.

M: Yeah. There's going to be a concert performance this Saturday. Everyone's been preparing for it, but there's one thing... Jason. He's one of our best singers. Today, he told me that he can't perform this Saturday because of an emergency.

W: Oh, I see... so you're missing one singer and can't find anyone to replace him?

M: Exactly! Do you know anything I can do?

W: Hmm... Let's see now... Uh, can you reschedule the concert for next week? I'm sure most students won't mind waiting another weekend.

M: I could try that... but that's going to be an exam week. I don't know if many people will come to see the show.

W: Hmm... then have you thought about singing Jason's part yourself? I already know you're a great singer, so maybe you can put on a good show!

M: Well, I do know all the songs... but it's just that I have to direct the play as well. That might be too much work for me to handle.
